A naturally bright, artfully appointed, designer dream of a four bedroom, three bathroom Victorian terrace. Expertly arranged across three immaculate storeys, this is an exceptional family find, handily sat halfway between the hearts of Leyton and Walthamstow.

With three storeys and 1600 square feet of living space, plus a substantial basement, you have more than enough room here for the most demanding of families. Classic vintage style blends with delightful designer finishes throughout, and there's a private garden to the rear.

Leyton Midland Road overground is just fifteen minutes on foot, and home to some lively dining and coffee spots. Famous Francis Road is just as close, and if you're looking for greenery you have Leyton Jubilee Park less than a half mile away on foot.
