This Grade II Listed Maisonette has been in the same family since the 1920s until the late 1960s and is available on the open market for the very first time. Offering notably large accommodation, arranged over two floors, the versatile accommodation comprises two large reception rooms, three double bedrooms and the benefit of a rear courtyard.

Ripe for modernisation, yet having been rewired and replumbed, the property is now a blank canvas for the most discerning buyer to create to their own taste. This beautiful maisonette apartment is situated in the very heart of this bustling town, with everything close to hand, including shops, restaurants, amenities and recreational facilities. Many character features could be retained, such as high ceilings with picture rails, exposed floorboards and sash windows.

The entrance is opposite the Church and stairs rise to a large first floor landing with ample cupboard storage space, then door leading to the 24'ft drawing room, enjoying a double aspect towards the church and town centre. A quirky bathroom has a large walk-in shower, basin and wc. There are two further large rooms, one could be the main bedroom and the other a more formal dining room. The kitchen/breakfast room has a utility room off and a door to a small area for a table and chairs, with steps down to a courtyard garden. On the second floor are two further large double bedrooms and a store/box room.
