LOCATION

Bronygarth is a small hamlet on the border of England and Wales within the picturesque Ceiriog Valley approximately 12 miles from Wrexham city centre and 5.5 miles from the bustling market town of Oswestry. Convenient amenities within the nearby villages of Weston Rhyn and Chirk provide local shops, train station, schools, restaurants and pubs. The stunning walks along Offa's Dyke, the National Trust Parkland of Chirk Castle, the Viaduct and Aqueduct offer a superb outdoor lifestyle yet within commuting distance of Chester, Wrexham, Shropshire and beyond. Both private and public schools are within easy reach.

DIRECTIONS

From the A483 Wrexham to Oswestry bypass take the 3rd exit signposted Chirk. Proceed into the village and take the right turning after the parade of shops onto Castle Road. Continue to the mini roundabout near to Chirk Aqueduct and take the 1st exit towards Glyn Ceiriog. Take the left turn after the fisheries onto Castle Mill, bear left as you ascend the hill and continue until Mews Cottage will be observed on the right prior to the bridge. Alternatively the property can be reached through Weston Rhyn and take a right turn at the mini roundabout onto Bronygarth Road. Follow this road into the hamlet and Mews Cottage will be seen on the left hand side after the S bend.
