Property Description

A charming period 2 bedroom cottage situated within the highly sought-after Park Square in central Esher.

The property offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, combining character features with a modern open-plan reception and dining area, fitted kitchen and a modern, first-floor bathroom. It also benefits from mostly sash windows, in keeping with the Victorian style and gas central heating.

Set in a beautifully secluded area, ideally located within walking distance of Esher High Street, offering a varied range of shops, restaurants, cinema, Waitrose supermarket and local amenities very close by and easy access to Esher mainline train station.

The property benefits from a south-west facing garden, complete with a versatile outhouse—ideal for use as a home office or relaxing retreat.
