A beautifully presented one double bedroom flat available in an attractive period conversion ideally located on a prestigious residential, tree lined street in West Putney. It is within walking distance to the shops, restaurants and cafes on Putney High Street, and both the train and tube stations. There is a well-proportioned lounge which leads into a separate modern kitchen. The bedroom is a good size, and is bright and airy. This lovely property is neutrally decorated and has generous natural light throughout with large windows, it offers character features and high ceilings and there is excellent storage space. Permit parking may also be available via the council, but your own verification would need to be done to confirm this. The council tax is Band C within the Wandsworth borough.
