This charming and spacious studio apartment has a separated bedroom area by modern sliding doors creating a double bedroom space with excellent built in storage. The separate lounge area is bright and spacious, with a lovely outlook over the attractive communal gardens and surrounding area. There are large windows in the lounge which makes the flat bright and airy throughout, and the flat benefits from double glazing. The shower room is modern, with additional storage and a heated towel rail.

Located in a charming and well-kept mansion style development only moments from Wimbledon Common, the building also benefits from a very pretty and useable communal garden. On street parking may be available on a first come, first served basis, please check with the council for terms.

Early viewings are a must with this one.
