Outside

Little Shepherds Cottage is approached from a private driveway which leads to a large parking and turning area with an abundance of mature Yew hedges which provides a high degree of seclusion from neighbouring properties. The garden is predominantly in two areas with one small entertaining area to the rear with a raised area of lawn again with mature hedging. The main area of garden is approached from the drive, tiered with two areas of lawn with a number of mature blossom trees and at the far end of the garden there is useful former garage/garden store.
