- Stylishly finished
- Two double bedrooms
- No chain
- Village location

A well-presented and stylish two-bedroom end-of-terrace house, located in the heart of the popular village of Willingham.

The property is set slightly back from the road behind a small front garden, with a mature hedge providing excellent privacy. The front door opens directly into a characterful living and dining space featuring well-maintained oak flooring, attractive wall panelling, and a tiled dining area with built-in shelving and generous under-stairs storage. Large windows to both the front and rear aspects flood the room with natural light.

Leading off the dining area, the galley-style kitchen is fitted with a gas hob, electric oven, contemporary cabinetry, wooden worktops, and a fully tiled splashback. Additional features include a double sink with rinser, tiled flooring, and an overhead skylight. The kitchen also provides direct access to the private rear garden, which is gravelled, well planted, and benefits from access to the rear of the property.

A versatile office space at the rear enjoys patio doors opening onto the garden, making it ideal for home working or use as a boot room.

Upstairs, the first floor comprises a spacious double bedroom with a traditional sash window, painted wooden floorboards, and an original fireplace. The modern bathroom features a shower over the bath, tiled flooring, a heated towel rail, and a beautiful stained-glass window that adds unique charm and character.

The top floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom, a generous double room with fitted carpet and access to a unique private balcony offering views over the surrounding gardens.

Willingham is an exceptionally well-served village with a local primary school, shops, pubs, and a range of amenities including a butcher's, farm shop, library, and pharmacy. Cambridge and Huntingdon are easily accessible via the A14, making the village conveniently located while retaining its traditional village charm.
