DESCRIPTION

Sebastian Court is an impressive detached period residence nestled in the picturesque Esplanade Gardens of Scarborough. The property has been completely renovated internally to provide modern apartments throughout, with the added benefit of lift access. This top floor apartment retains much of the original character, while offering stylish, contemporary "penthouse"-style living. With a delightful side sea view and a welcoming layout, the flat combines comfort, charm, and convenience, offering an inviting coastal lifestyle.

Inside, a generous reception room creates the ideal setting for both relaxation and entertaining. The well-appointed kitchen includes all the essentials for day-to-day living. A bright and well-proportioned double bedroom provides a peaceful retreat, perfect for unwinding after a day by the sea. Completing the interior is a modern bathroom, thoughtfully designed with contemporary fittings that balance both style and functionality.

Ideally situated just moments from local amenities, the property enjoys easy access to a variety of shops, cafes, and restaurants. Excellent public transport links further enhance its appeal, offering convenient travel around Scarborough and to the surrounding areas.

With its desirable features, period charm, prime location, and pleasant sea view, this property is a superb opportunity for anyone seeking to embrace coastal living. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this apartment has to offer.
