Offering generous and versatile accommodation, the property combines traditional charm with a number of improvements made by the current owners, including a revamped kitchen, wood-burning stove and a recently installed new roof. The property is also offered with no onward chain.

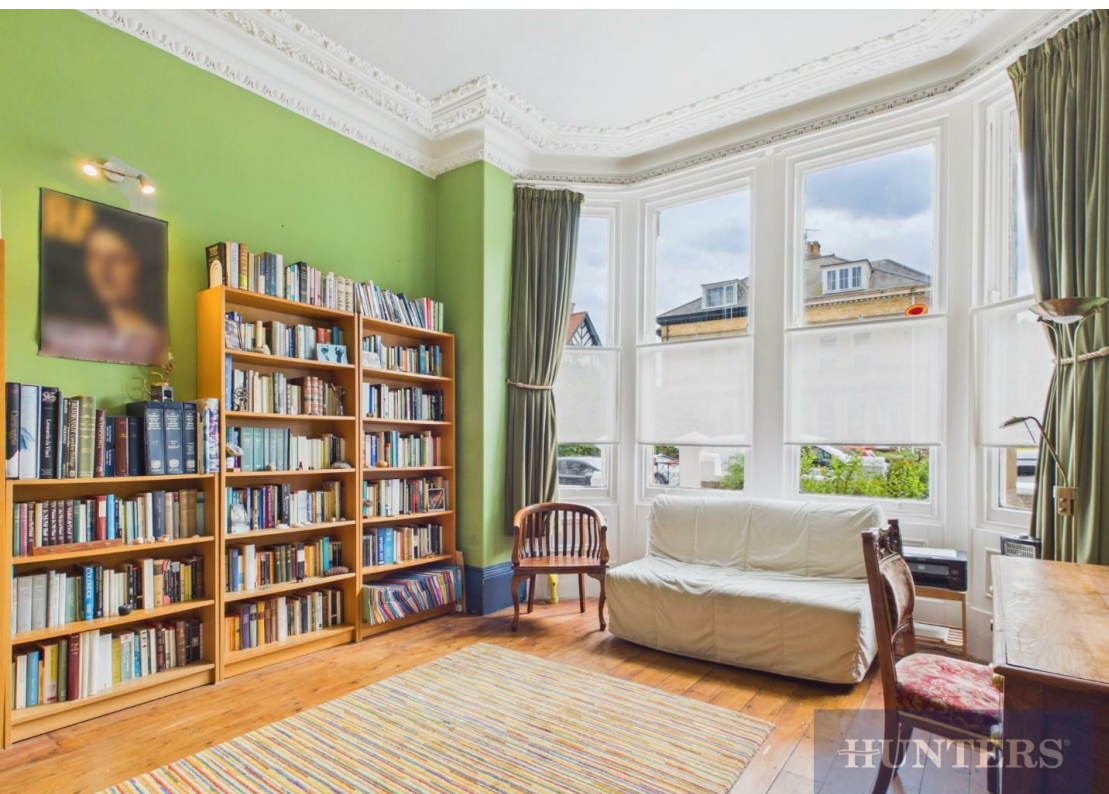

The accommodation opens into a welcoming hallway providing access to the principal rooms. A particular highlight is the impressive living room, offering excellent proportions and plenty of space for relaxing and entertaining. The wood-burning stove creates a warm and inviting focal point while complementing the period character of the home.

The revamped kitchen provides a practical and attractive space, with an adjoining dining room offering a separate area for everyday dining and entertaining. The property also features a well-proportioned bedroom and bathroom, while a further versatile living room/bedroom offers excellent flexibility and could be utilised as a second bedroom, additional reception room, home office or guest space. A useful laundry room provides additional practicality.

Externally, the property enjoys the rare advantage of owning both its front and rear outdoor spaces. To the front is a south-facing yard, providing an ideal spot to sit out and enjoy the sunshine. To the rear is a further private yard which acts as a real sun trap, creating another fantastic space for outdoor dining, entertaining or relaxing. The rear also benefits from a wood store and shed, providing useful outdoor storage.
