DESCRIPTION

Hunters are delighted to present this beautifully renovated terraced house, nestled on the ever-popular Princess Street in Scarborough—just moments from the seafront and boasting stunning sea views over the harbour. This is a rare opportunity for both families and investors, with the property offered to the market with no onward chain.

The accommodation includes a contemporary kitchen, two generous reception rooms, a master bedroom with ensuite, three further spacious bedrooms, and an additional well-appointed bathroom—each thoughtfully designed for modern living. Several rooms enjoy elevated views over Scarborough Harbour and the shimmering sea beyond, adding to the property's unique coastal charm. To the rear, an enclosed patio offers a private outdoor space—perfect for al fresco dining or relaxing in the sunshine.

Recently renovated to a high standard, the property is both stylish and functional throughout. Its current use as a successful holiday let further underlines its strong income potential, especially given its enviable harbour-side location and panoramic sea views.

Whether you're looking for a permanent seaside residence or a high-performing investment property, this rare find on Princess Street offers comfort, character, and an unbeatable coastal outlook. Don't miss the chance to make this exceptional sea-view home your own.
