This charming cottage is brimming with character and offers far more than first meets the eye. From the moment you step through the welcoming entrance hall, the home immediately reveals its warmth and charm, with attractive period features including exposed beams, a cosy log burner and the characterful stone flooring found in the breakfast kitchen. As you explore further, the property continues to impress, revealing delightful surprises including a lovely garden and a versatile workshop, making this a truly special home.

The property is located in the heart of the sought-after village of Leven, a popular East Yorkshire village just a short drive from the historic market town of Beverley. Leven enjoys a strong community feel and offers a range of everyday amenities including local shops, a well-regarded primary school, pubs, recreational facilities and beautiful countryside walks nearby, making it an ideal setting for village life while still being conveniently placed for surrounding towns.

Viewings are highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this delightful home has to offer. The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, a cosy lounge, kitchen diner, a bright sun room which also serves as a utility area, and a convenient guest WC to the ground floor. To the first floor, the landing leads to three bedrooms and the house bathroom.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a garage and off-road parking, a pleasant patio area ideal for outdoor seating, a useful workshop and an unexpectedly generous garden complete with a charming summer house, a wonderful space to relax and enjoy.
