Summary

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Ripon, this deceptively spacious traditional style terraced home offers charming accommodation, ideal for first time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike.

The property opens into an entrance hall leading through to a well proportioned lounge, featuring an attractive ornamental fireplace and a bright, welcoming atmosphere. To the rear, a generous dining kitchen provides ample space for modern family living, with a Belfast style sink, space for a Range style cooker, and direct access down steps to a large cellar—offering excellent storage potential.

Upstairs, there are two good sized double bedrooms, including a spacious master bedroom with fitted wardrobes. A contemporary bathroom with stylish fittings completes the first floor accommodation.

Externally, the rear garden is enclosed and thoughtfully designed with low maintenance artificial grass, a patio area, a garden shed for additional storage, and pleasant views overlooking the allotments beyond—creating a peaceful outdoor retreat.

This characterful home blends traditional charm with modern comfort and enjoys a tucked away position within easy reach of Ripon's many amenities. Early viewing is highly recommended.
