Nestled in the charming village of Bradley this unique stone-built mill conversion offers a remarkable blend of character and modern living. With three spacious double bedrooms, including a principal suite with an en-suite shower room, this property is designed for comfort and versatility.

The high ceilings and exposed beams create an inviting atmosphere, while the magnificent two-storey arched window provides breathtaking views over Bradley Cricket Club & playing fields and the Aire Valley.

This is a unique, charming family home with an enclosed garden, dedicated covered double parking bay, and just a short walk from the village shop and pub.

As you enter, you are greeted by a welcoming reception hallway that leads to a utility room with an adjoining cloakroom. The open-plan dining room flows seamlessly into a well-equipped breakfast-kitchen, which opens onto a manageable rear garden, perfect for outdoor relaxation. The first floor boasts an impressive living room, complete with a freestanding cast iron gas stove and a stunning vaulted ceiling that extends to a galleried home office / games area above. This space is ideal for a variety of other uses.

The principal bedroom has an en-suite, and there are 2 further double bedrooms. The property also has a house bathroom and a useful store room / walk-in wardrobe, ensuring ample storage throughout.

Outside, a private carport accommodates two vehicles, adding to the convenience of this exceptional home, and there is an attractive and low maintenance enclosed garden.

Bradley is a highly sought-after village, just two miles from the market town of Skipton, known as the 'Gateway to the Dales.' Residents enjoy a range of local amenities, including a well-regarded primary school, a village store, and the traditional Slaters Arms pub. With excellent secondary schooling options nearby, this property represents an exciting opportunity for those seeking a characterful home in a picturesque setting.

Take a look at the 3D Virtual Viewing Tour, but a first-hand inspection is essential to fully appreciate the spacious and imaginative layout of this remarkable residence.

Annual Management Service charge including buildings insurance is £1128. No ground rent payable.
