A superb chalet-style home located at the top of Green Lane in Glusburn. This remarkable five-bedroom detached home was built in the 1920s, and presents a rare opportunity to acquire a home steeped in character and charm.

Available for the first time in nearly three decades, this stone-built Arts and Crafts property is set on a generous, beautifully landscaped plot, offering some fine views that enhance its appeal.

Also featuring a large single garage, garden / log shed and driveway parking.

Handy for all of Crosshills excellent facilities and Cononley train station. 10 Minutes to Skipton. 1 hour to Manchester & South Lakes. Train to Leeds just 35 minutes.

An ornate original timber portico entrance and inner vestibule leads into a spacious hallway lined with exquisite Lincrusta panelling.

The sitting room with parquet floor is a highlight, featuring an ornate fireplace, original coving, and a large bay window that frames the stunning views, while additional windows ensure the space is filled with natural light.

An impressive breakfast-kitchen features a central island, high-quality integrated appliances, and an attractive open fireplace and enjoys fine views over the garden. There is a sun room directly off the kitchen, also with delightful views over the gardens

The ground floor also boasts three double bedrooms, each having period fireplaces and built-in wardrobes, and serviced by a good sized high quality bathroom.

A return staircase rises to 2 good-sized first floor bedrooms and a shower room.

Outside, the property has a driveway leading to a detached stone-built garage / workshop with potential for conversion subject to planning consents and a garden shed / fuel store. The gardens are immaculate and well stocked and offer a tranquil setting for relaxation and entertaining.

Situated in one of the most sought after areas of Glusburn, there is an abundance of shops, and full facilities in Crosshills, a 2 minute drive down the road, and Cononley railway station is just a 5 minute drive away, with regular trains to Leeds, Bradford & Skipton.
