Asking Price £595,000-£625,000

A stunning period home offering spacious, light-filled accommodation with the added benefit of no onward chain

Set on a prominent corner plot, the property features a distinctive corner bay window, landscaped front and side gardens with low-maintenance planting, and a detached garage with courtesy door to the garden. Inside, period features including cornicing, picture rails, stained-glass windows, and fireplaces blend seamlessly with modern finishes.

The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a versatile living room with bay window and working fireplace, and a generous lounge/diner ideal for entertaining, also with feature fireplace and shuttered bay window. The versatile living space could be adapted to create a bedroom if desired. The kitchen is fitted with integrated appliances including a 5-ring hob, double oven with microwave/grill, dishwasher, fridge/freezer, washer/dryer, Quooker tap, and underfloor heating, with a skylight filling the room with natural light and views over the rear garden. A convenient ground-floor WC complete the layout.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms, a further bedroom with built-in storage, and a modern bathroom with vanity unit, WC, underfloor heating and bath with shower. There is potential to convert the loft to create a master suite, subject to planning permission.

The rear garden features a decked seating area, lawn, and mature borders, while the detached garage offers off-street parking, storage, or conversion potential.

0.9 miles from Abbey Wood Station, residents enjoy excellent transport links, with Thameslink and Southeastern services alongside the Elizabeth Line providing fast access across London. Local bus routes add convenience, and families benefit from nearby schools including Alexander McLeod and Bannockburn Primary.

Perfect for families or commuters, this property combines versatile living, excellent transport links, local amenities, a corner plot, and a detached garage with garden access.
