Kimber House, High Street, SO14

Guide Price £200,000

Situated in the heart of Southampton's historic Old Town, Flat 27 Kimber House enjoys a particularly distinctive position, with views down towards the English Heritage Merchant's House – one of the property's standout features. Combining this unique historic outlook with the convenience of contemporary city-centre living, the apartment occupies an enviable position on Southampton High Street.

This modern apartment also benefits from a desirable south-west facing balcony, providing an attractive private outdoor space and an excellent aspect for enjoying the afternoon and evening sunshine.

The accommodation includes a well-proportioned reception room with ample space for both living and dining furniture, together with a fitted kitchen offering a range of units, work surfaces and practical storage.

There are two well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from its own en-suite bathroom. A separate main bathroom serves the second bedroom and guests, providing the convenience of two bathrooms in total.

For investors, the apartment offers the potential for an indicative gross rental yield of approximately 9%, subject to the achieved rental income and purchase price. Equally, it would make an excellent home for an owner-occupier seeking a fantastic City Centre location, or an attractive pied-à-terre combining modern convenience with the character and history of Southampton's Old Town.
