Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Compliance

Estate agents operating in the UK are legally required to carry out Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in line with regulations set by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). At Hunters Dursley, we use Moverly to facilitate these checks as part of our commitment to compliance and transparency. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to complete AML verification before a property transaction can proceed. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check carried out.

Birds Nest Cottage is a charming two-bedroom terraced cottage, set on the popular Union Street in the heart of Dursley. Arranged over three floors and full of character, the property offers an excellent opportunity for a buyer to update and personalise a traditional home.

The property is approached via a front porch, leading into a cosy living room featuring a wood-burning stove and attractive exposed brickwork, creating a warm and inviting focal point. To the rear, the kitchen is functional and well laid out, offering access to the garden via a charming stable door, enhancing the cottage feel.

The first floor provides a well-proportioned bedroom and the family bathroom, with a staircase rising to the second floor where the main bedroom is located, offering a peaceful retreat at the top of the house.

Externally, the rear garden includes a lawned area and a decked seating space, ideal for outdoor enjoyment. Two outside sheds provide useful storage.

While the property would benefit from some updating, it presents a fantastic opportunity for someone to put their own stamp on a characterful cottage. On-street parking is available nearby, and the property enjoys a pleasant outlook.

Conveniently positioned within easy reach of Dursley's local shops, cafés and amenities, the town is known for its friendly community, historic charm and access to beautiful surrounding countryside.
