Agents Note

Estate agents operating in the UK are legally required to carry out Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in line with regulations set by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). At Hunters Dursley, we use Moverly to facilitate these checks as part of our commitment to compliance and transparency. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to complete AML verification before a property transaction can proceed. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check carried out.

We are delighted to bring to market this attractive 1930s three-bedroom semi-detached home, set within the ever-popular Highfields development. Enjoying a particularly enviable position, the property backs directly onto open fields and boasts far-reaching, south-facing views towards the wooded slopes of Stinchcombe Hill.

Since purchasing the property, the current owners have made thoughtful improvements, most notably installing a stylish new kitchen, blending contemporary design with everyday practicality.

The well-proportioned accommodation is ideal for families and includes: a spacious lounge with feature fireplace and wood-burning stove, three bedrooms, a ground floor bathroom with shower, and the recently upgraded kitchen. The home benefits from gas-fired central heating and double-glazed UPVC windows throughout.

Outside, the generous rear garden enjoys a sunny south-facing aspect and uninterrupted countryside views, perfect for families, gardening enthusiasts, or those who enjoy outdoor entertaining.

The property is conveniently located for access into Dursley town centre, offering a wide range of amenities including a bustling shopping area, Sainsbury's supermarket, leisure centre/swimming pool, library, doctor's surgery, and dentist. Rednock Secondary School is within the town, while a highly regarded primary school is just a one-minute walk away (approx). For commuters, the A38 and M5 motorway provide excellent road links to Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham, while the mainline railway station at Cam (Box Road) offers direct services to Bristol and London Paddington via Gloucester.
