The rear gardens are mainly laid to lawn with trees and shrubs, a patio area and fence boundaries.

Situated in the sought after Jubilee Close cul-de-sac this modern extended semi-detached house offers deceptively spacious accommodation having a 25ft through lounge/dining room. The accommodation has been enlarged by way of a ground floor extension to the rear overlooking the delightful mature gardens with patio and lawn. There is a well fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and bathroom with shower. The property has gas fired central heating and double glazed windows and external doors. The gardens are a particular feature with a lovely mature cottage feel enjoying a sunny aspect with great space for children and general entertaining. There is an attached garage to the side with an up-and-over door and driveway parking to the front providing parking for two or three cars.

Jubilee Close is well positioned close to the Village of Cam with its day to day retailers and Tesco supermarket and there are more amenities at the bustling Town Centre of Dursley approximately two miles away with day to day retailers, doctors, dentists, cafes and eateries and leisure centre/swimming pool.

Commuting to the larger centres of Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham is made easy by the A38 and M5 motorway network and there is a mainline train station at Box Road, Cam serving Bristol and London Paddington via Gloucester.
