Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Compliance

Estate agents operating in the UK are legally required to carry out Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in line with regulations set by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). At Hunters Dursley, we use Moverly to facilitate these checks as part of our commitment to compliance and transparency. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to complete AML verification before a property transaction can proceed. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check carried out.

Located in the desirable area of Hopton Road, Upper Cam, this detached bungalow, found in an elevated position, presents an excellent opportunity for someone to put their own stamp on a property. The bungalow boasts generous gardens that offer an open farmland back-drop to the rear, with excellent scope for improvement or extension, subject to the necessary consents.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by an entrance porch leading into a bright hallway which in turn leads to the lounge which overlooks the front of the property with elevated views. The bungalow comprises two well-proportioned double bedrooms, one to the front, the other to the rear, providing ample space for relaxation and rest. The bathroom is conveniently located to the rear of the property, and the well proportioned fitted kitchen/breakfast room, again overlooks the rear garden, allowing you to enjoy the farmland views.

The exterior of the property is equally impressive, with a good-size front garden that enhances its curb appeal. The driveway offers parking for multiple vehicles, ensuring convenience for residents and guests alike. The, established rear garden backs onto local farmland with a good size lawned area, vegetable beds, plants, tree and shrubs.

Additionally, the property features an under-croft for storage, adding practicality to this bungalow. You will also find the oil boiler in this area. This bungalow is a rare find in a sought-after location offering an excellent opportunity for a new purchaser.
