

Canal Bank, Purton, Berkeley

£1,350

Council Tax: C

Tenure:

Idyllically located overlooking the Canal in Purton, this spacious end of terrace cottage offers an entrance lobby leading to the generous sitting room giving access to the conservatory overlooking the Severn Estuary. There is a dining room/second reception which leads to the fitted kitchen with oven and hob with space for the fridge/freezer and dishwasher, downstairs shower room and utility room with sink, space for the washing machine and tumble dryer and water cylinder. The first floor has a landing leading to three double bedrooms overlooking the canal. There is also a further bathroom with shower cubicle. Outside the property has an established garden with outbuildings, greenhouse, shared septic tank and garage with electric door, power and light. There is also parking available on a first come, first served basis.

- Beautiful Location overlooking the Canal in Purton
- Two Reception Rooms and Conservatory
- Three Double Bedroom and Further First Floor Bathroom
- Further Parking Available
- Spacious End of Terrace Property
- Fitted Kitchen, Downstairs Shower Room and Utility Room
- Garage with Electric Doors, Power and Light
- Available Now

