A well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offering generous accommodation throughout, ideal for families and those looking for versatile living space.

The property features a bright and airy dual-aspect lounge/diner with direct views over the rear garden, creating an excellent space for both relaxing and entertaining. The well-equipped kitchen offers ample built-in cupboard space and provides direct access to the garden. A welcoming entrance hallway with stairs rising to the first floor completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms comprising two doubles and a single bedroom/study, together with a family bathroom and separate WC.

Outside, the property boasts a fantastic-sized rear garden, mainly laid to lawn, with a patio seating area adjoining the kitchen, perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining. There is also side access from the front of the property. To the rear of the garden is a substantial outbuilding with power, lighting and water connected, offering excellent potential for use as a workshop, home office or hobby room. A second outbuilding provides additional useful storage space.

To the front of the property is a private driveway providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

Berkeley is a historic castle town in Gloucestershire, set between the River Severn and the Cotswold escarpment, offering a charming blend of countryside living and excellent commuter links. The town is best known for the famous Berkeley Castle and its rich heritage, whilst also benefiting from a strong local community, independent shops, cafés and traditional pubs.

The area is popular with families and professionals alike thanks to its scenic surroundings, nearby countryside walks and convenient access to the A38 and M5 motorway, providing straightforward routes to Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham. Rail services are available from nearby Cam & Dursley station.

Berkeley also offers a range of local amenities including primary schooling, community facilities and recreational activities, with the wider Berkeley Vale providing beautiful open countryside and riverside walks.

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Compliance

Estate agents operating in the UK are legally required to carry out Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in line with regulations set by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). At Hunters Dursley, we use Moverly to facilitate these checks as part of our commitment to compliance and transparency. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to complete AML verification before a property transaction can proceed. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check carried out.
