

Collegiate Crescent, Sheffield, S10 2BJ

Asking Price £675,000

Hunters are delighted to bring to the market this most delightful five bedroom, semi detached stone built Victorian family home which retains much of its original character and charm located in this highly desirable and leafy residential suburb. Offering extremely deceptive, stylishly presented and most versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. A full internal inspection is a must to appreciate the high quality of period accommodation on offer. Gas fired central heating and double glazing. Entrance hall, inner lobby with w.c., bathroom and ground floor bedrooms four and five (currently used as a study). Superb dining kitchen with Habitat units and granite work tops, pantry, utility room and cellar, superb sitting room with French windows to the delightful garden. First Floor: master bedroom with large dressing room, bedroom two and a family bathroom. Second Floor: Bedroom three. Outside: one car parking spaces and south westerly facing courtyard garden area. Broomhall is a popular and sought after residential areas with a host of local amenities including the fashionable Ecclesall Road with excellent range of shops, restaurants and bars, schools and regular public transport. Within walking distance of Sheffield Universities, principal hospitals and Sheffield City Centre.

- Victorian semi-detached
- Superb Kitchen
- South westerly garden
- Desirable location
- 2 parking spaces
- Five bedrooms
- Set over three floors
- Original character
- Gas central heating
- utility room

