DESCRIPTION

Hunters Estate Agents, Downend are delighted to offer for sale this spacious and well-presented three double bedroom semi-detached family home, occupying a highly convenient position on the borders of Staple Hill and Downend and a short walk to both High streets with their array of shops, coffee shops, restaurants and every day amenities whilst being in close proximity of several well regarded schools to include: Christchurch Infant and Junior schools as well as Downend Secondary school.

For commuters, there are regular transport links into Bristol city centre, while the nearby Bristol to Bath Railway Path provides a popular traffic-free route for cyclists and walkers. The award-winning Page Park is also within easy walking distance, with further green spaces at Oldbury Court, Snuff Mills and Frenchay Common all readily accessible.

The generous accommodation comprises to the ground floor: entrance hallway, cloakroom, a versatile separate reception room ideal as a home office or snug, and a spacious lounge with wood burner and overlooking the rear garden. The lounge flows through to a modern kitchen/diner, creating a sociable and practical family living space.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms and a good-sized family bathroom, with the principal bedroom further benefiting from its own en-suite shower room.

Outside, the front provides off-street parking for approximately two to three vehicles together with useful storage. To the rear is a particularly attractive south-facing garden, enjoying plenty of sunshine throughout the day. A generous decked seating area provides an excellent space for outdoor dining and entertaining, overlooking the established garden, while a further bike/storage shed can be found to the side.

A superb family home combining generous accommodation, excellent outside space and a highly convenient location close to schools, parks, amenities and transport links.
