HUNTERS[®]
HERE TO GET you THERE

This beautifully renovated, stone built terraced cottage, built with reclaimed material from the local mill, sits in the heart of Addingham and is tastefully decorated throughout with the perfect mix of both modern and reclaimed material. The property has the advantage of tranquil private gardens both front and rear, as well as the benefit of allocated parking.

The stunning sitting room, with eco friendly cast iron bioethanal stove and reclaimed whitewashed wooden ceiling, is entered from a chequered tiled hallway with cosy reading nook, which in turn leads into the cosy kitchen with fully integrated appliances, wooden butcher's block breakfast bar and reclaimed natural wooden ceiling. Upstairs are two ample double bedrooms with storage and quality fitted wardrobes and a beautiful brand new bathroom with Burlington fixtures, stone free standing bath and quality tiles to walls and floor.

The beauty of this cottage is its beck side location and sun trap gardens providing an entirely private oasis of calm just off Main Street, yet within walking distance of local amenities in this popular village between Ilkley and the edge of the Dales. Rarely does a cottage of this quality so thoughtfully updated come to market.
