Moden Hill

Dudley, DY3 3YB

£450,000

Some homes are all about the setting and Moden Hill certainly makes the most of its elevated position. With stunning far-reaching views, an abundance of character and beautifully presented accommodation, this four-bedroom detached home offers something genuinely different and is ready for its new owners to simply move in and enjoy.

Inside, the property combines warmth and personality with practical family living. The accommodation offers plenty of versatility, with inviting living spaces designed to take full advantage of the outlook and natural light. The kitchen provides a sociable heart to the home, while four bedrooms give families the flexibility for children, guests or working from home. Throughout, the property has been maintained and presented to an excellent standard, retaining a real sense of character rather than feeling like just another modern family home.

The outside space complements the house beautifully, providing somewhere to relax, entertain and, most importantly, appreciate those impressive views. Its elevated position gives the property a wonderful outlook and a feeling of being tucked away from the everyday, while still remaining incredibly convenient.
