DESCRIPTION

Hunters are pleased to present this detached bungalow situated amongst the ever popular Straits development. Located between Sedgley and Gornal Wood village both boasting a variety of general amenities and schooling, a primary school is also located on the Straits itself.

Being sold with no upward chain and offering fantastic potential throughout this property promises to be an ideal choice for those looking to downsize.

A side porch leads into the spacious hall giving access to each room individually. The lounge and kitchen are located to the rear offering views towards the private rear garden with direct access outside. A bathroom, two bedrooms and current dining room which could otherwise serve as a third bedroom complete the accommodation.

Generous off road parking and access to the garage is from the fore, with the later ideal for storage or to potentially convert to increase the internal living space. Lastly the rear garden provides a peaceful and not overlooked outdoor space perfect to relax or entertain friends & family, whilst boasting a low maintenance approach with extensive patio and raised lawn.

Viewing is highly recommend to appreciate this fantastic bungalow. To arrange a viewing please call the office.
