Summary

Hunters are pleased to present this semi detached home, well located in a popular Woodcross neighbourhood, within walking distance of local amenities and within the catchment of a well sought after 'outstanding' primary school nearby.

Briefly comprising of a spacious entrance hall with under stair storage and stairs to first floor landing. A comfortable lounge with access to the rear garden is the main hub of the home, with a modern kitchen and adjoining utility room also located on the ground floor. Upstairs are three bedrooms and the family bathroom to complete the accommodation.

Offering fantastic potential throughout, ample front & rear gardens offer further potential to create an idyllic outdoor space and add off road parking.

To arrange a viewing please call the office and speak with a member of our sales team.
