Balvenie Way, Dudley, DY1

Asking Price £210,000

We are delighted to present this attractive semi-detached house, now available for sale and ideally suited to first-time buyers and investors alike. Situated within easy reach of public transport links, reputable schools, local amenities, and scenic parks, this property offers both convenience and a desirable lifestyle.

The accommodation features a spacious reception room, providing an inviting space to relax or entertain guests. The heart of the home is a well-appointed kitchen, set on a generous plot, which offers ample space for culinary pursuits and potential for future enhancements.

The house comprises two well-proportioned double bedrooms. The master bedroom offers a restful retreat with ample room for additional furnishings, while the second double bedroom is ideal for family, guests, or as a dedicated home office.

A family bathroom serves the bedrooms and living areas with practicality and ease. With a layout tailored for comfortable everyday living, this home offers an excellent canvas for personalisation and potential value uplift.

Externally, the generous plot provides outdoor space suitable for gardening, leisure, or further expansion subject to the appropriate consents.

Positioned in a sought-after area with excellent access to transport links, esteemed local schools, vibrant amenities, and nearby parks, this property combines comfort with location advantage—making it a superb choice for those seeking both practicality and future investment potential.
