 4  3  2  C

Cinder Road, Gornal Wood

Asking Price £399,000

Hunters are pleased to present this beautiful, spacious four-bedroom detached house for sale in Lower Gornal. The property is presented in fabulous condition, making it well suited to families seeking a practical home in an established residential area.

The property provides two reception rooms, with the main reception offering views over, and direct access to, the rear garden. The ground floor also includes a kitchen with defined dining and breakfast areas, plus a useful utility room. A downstairs WC adds further convenience. Upstairs, the accommodation comprises a master bedroom with en-suite, a second double bedroom also benefiting from an en-suite, and two additional double bedrooms.

Externally, the house includes ample off-street parking and a garden, providing outdoor space for relaxation and play.

Gornal offers a range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and everyday services in the village centre. Several schools are located within the wider Gornal and Dudley area, appealing to those looking for access to primary and secondary education.

Public transport links connect Lower Gornal with nearby towns such as Dudley and Wolverhampton via local bus services. The nearest mainline rail options are typically accessed from stations in Dudley Port or Wolverhampton, providing routes towards Birmingham and beyond, with journey times to central Birmingham commonly around 25–35 minutes by train from these stations. Road links are accessible via routes towards the A461 and wider Black Country network, supporting commuting by car.
