DESCRIPTION

HUNTERS APARTMENT DEPARTMENT

Split-Level Style, Two En-Suites & 0.3 Miles from the Station

Apartment living, without compromising on space.

Welcome to Washington Road — a beautifully presented 849 sq ft split-level maisonette that feels far more like a house than a flat. Two floors, two double bedrooms, two en-suites and a share of freehold make this a rather impressive package. Accessed via a private entrance shared with just one other property, stairs lead to a bright and cleverly arranged first floor.

The generous reception room enjoys plenty of natural light from attractive sash-style windows, while the standout kitchen/dining room is made for modern living. Sleek contemporary units, integrated appliances, generous worktops and proper space for a dining table mean there's room to cook, entertain and actually enjoy it.

Bedroom Two is also on this floor and is currently doing a fine job as a home office/dressing room, although it comfortably accommodates a double bed. It also comes with its own stylish en-suite shower room.

Head upstairs and the principal bedroom gets a floor almost to itself. Velux windows bring in plenty of natural light, while fitted storage, useful eaves space and a modern en-suite bathroom create a private retreat.

Beautifully presented throughout and offered with a share of freehold, this is apartment living with a little more personality.

And then there's the commute. Worcester Park Station is just 0.3 miles away, providing regular direct services into London Waterloo, with the High Street, Waitrose, cafés and restaurants all close at hand.

Popular local schools include Green Lane Primary, Cheam Common Junior and Cheam Common Infants, while nearby Nonsuch Park provides plenty of space when London feels a little too London.
