DESCRIPTION

No Chain, Guide Price £800,000 - £850,000

A well presented large and spacious Four bedroom semi detached family home situated close to local amenities and excellent transport links. The property boasts versatile living space with open and light rooms with high ceilings throughout. Upon entering the property into an open hallway there is the first reception room with a bay window providing much light, a second reception room ideal as a dining room or second reception leading onto a glass conservatory providing an outlook to a large private garden mostly laid to lawn and part patio and decking. Furthermore there is a good sized fully fitted family kitchen with separate utility room and a downstairs bedroom with direct access to a bathroom. The first floor presents three bedrooms one of which benefits from an en suite. There is also a large family three piece family bathroom. The property also offers potential to extend subject to the necessary planning requirements and has considerable off street parking for several cars. Viewings are highly recommended.
