Frome Park Road, Stroud, GL5 3LP

£695,000

Presenting a characterful Edwardian semi-detached house offering light and bright, a quiet, family friendly street, ideally placed, within close proximity to nearby schools. The property sits on a large plot, with a rugby field giving a spacious green feel to the exterior. Off street parking.

The house invites you in with its original period features; a cosy fireplace, tall ceilings, the main sitting room charms with timbered wood floors, a cast iron fireplace, and is very spacious, it could be easily divided if needed into a library or further dining space. The breakfast room which opens into the kitchen. This house is a delightful host to two bedrooms, one presenting a large double with open views. The convenience of two bathrooms, including a classic roll-top bath, and another on the top floor. Adding to the charm of the house is the garden with a landscaped, flagstone area and abundant apple tree casting enough shade for a picnic. It's just a short walk into town, so whether you're looking for a family home or quiet retirement home in Stroud, this house is an ideal choice.
