Thinking of Selling?

If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.

Offered with no onward chain, Hunters Estate Agents are delighted to present this charming period 2/3-bedroom semi-detached property, conveniently located within walking distance of Nailsworth town centre. Full of character and original features, the property does require modernisation throughout, offering an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to create a home to their own taste. The accommodation is arranged over three floors and comprises a living room, inner hall and bedroom three/study to the ground floor. The lower ground floor provides a hall and kitchen/dining room, while the first floor features two further bedrooms and a family bathroom. Further benefits include a garden, off-road parking for one vehicle and gas central heating. An early viewing is recommended to appreciate the property's character, layout and potential.

SITUATION

Nailsworth has become an increasingly popular shopping destination within the Stroud Valleys, offering an impressive range of independent and specialist shops. Highlights include Williams Food Hall and the renowned Hobbs House Bakery, alongside a variety of clothing and gift shops, cafés and highly regarded restaurants. The town also benefits from three supermarkets and free parking, while excellent state and independent schools are available in the surrounding area. Nailsworth is home to Forest Green Rovers Football Club, adding to the town's strong sense of community and leisure offering. Regular bus services connect Nailsworth with Stroud, approximately 4 miles away, where a wider range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities can be found. The M4 and M5 motorways are both readily accessible, while mainline railway stations at Stroud (approximately 4 miles), Stonehouse (6 miles) and Kemble (10 miles) provide connections to Gloucester, Swindon and London Paddington.
