Description

Hunters Estate Agents Stroud are delighted to present to the market this 3-4 bedroom detached chalet bungalow, perfectly positioned to enjoy wonderful views towards Rodborough Fort. The property offers excellent versatility and generous accommodation arranged over two floors, making it ideal for a wide range of buyers. Externally, the home benefits from a driveway with parking for up to five cars, incorporating a space suitable for a motorhome, and a single garage, ensuring ample provision for modern family living. Internally, the heart of the home is a superb 21ft kitchen dining room, complete with a charming wood burner, which flows seamlessly into the sitting room/ garden room, creating a warm and inviting space for entertaining or relaxing. The ground floor further comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms, a contemporary shower room, and a versatile study/gym that leads into a small conservatory, offering flexible options for work or leisure. Upstairs, the master suite provides a private retreat, featuring its own shower room with the added benefit of space large enough to accommodate a bath, enhancing comfort and convenience. The property's layout, with bedrooms thoughtfully arranged across both floors, ensures adaptability for families, downsizers, or those seeking guest accommodation. Situated in a highly sought-after location, this home combines practical living with scenic surroundings, making it a rare opportunity in the Stroud market. Early viewing is strongly recommended to appreciate the setting, space, and lifestyle this charming bungalow has to offer.

Amenities

Woodchester is in the Nailsworth Valley, running southwards from Stroud along the A46 road to Nailsworth. The parish population taken at the 2011 census was 1,206. There are pubs in both North and South Woodchester (The Royal Oak in North and The Ram in South) and a post office with a shop in North Woodchester. Woodchester is notable as the location of Woodchester Roman Villa. The village's parish church of St Mary's was designed by Samuel Sanders Teulon. Stroud is just 2.5 miles north of here where there are a variety of shops and amenities including the mainline station.
