Rear Garden

Offering an exceptionally long rear garden, two reception rooms with log burners and a substantial garage/storage area, this characterful two-bedroom mid-terraced home has plenty to offer.

The ground floor provides two separate reception rooms, both featuring log-burning stoves, alongside the kitchen. Upstairs are two double bedrooms and a modern family bathroom with a walk-in shower.

Outside, the property boasts a particularly long and generously sized rear garden, along with a large, secure garage/storage area which benefits from rear access.

Situated in a convenient central position, the property is close to Ashby's local shopping area and everyday amenities, while also providing excellent access to the motorway network for commuters.
