A Beautifully Presented Three-Bedroom Character Cottage in the Heart of Warfield Village

Set within the highly sought-after setting of historic Warfield Village, this charming three-bedroom semi-detached cottage has been thoughtfully extended and beautifully renovated to provide a stylish and versatile family home. Combining an array of original character features with contemporary finishes and generous living space, the property offers a wonderful balance of traditional charm and modern-day comfort.

From the moment you step inside, the character of the property is immediately apparent. The inviting living room features exposed timber beams, attractive wooden flooring and an impressive brick fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy and welcoming space in which to relax.

The exceptional open-plan kitchen, dining and family room forms the centrepiece of the home. Designed with both everyday family life and entertaining in mind, the room offers an excellent sense of space and is filled with natural light. The well-appointed kitchen provides a generous amount of storage and preparation space, together with room for a range cooker and further appliances. Two sets of French doors open onto the
