Spacious 3-Bedroom End-Terrace with Double Garage – Great Potential

This generously sized three-bedroom end-of-terrace home offers a solid layout and plenty of potential for buyers looking to make their mark. Set in a quiet residential area, the property benefits from extra space and privacy, with the added bonus of a double garage and allocated parking.

Inside, the home is well-proportioned, with a bright living room, a separate kitchen/dining area, and three comfortable bedrooms. While the property is in generally good condition, it would benefit from some modernisation, making it an ideal project for those wanting to update and personalise their space.

Outside, the end-terrace position provides a wider plot and a private garden, while the garage and parking offer great practicality for everyday life.

Conveniently located close to local amenities, schools, and transport links, this is a home with great potential for the right buyer to create something special.
