Ardgowan Road, London, SE6 1XB

Chain Free, Three-bedroom end-of-terrace Corbett house with period character and excellent scope for enhancement, making it an exciting prospect for buyers looking to add value.

Retaining a classic period façade with a distinctive bay window and architectural detailing, the property offers versatile living space over two floors.

The ground floor features a through reception room with an archway dividing living and dining areas, a separate kitchen, and a utility room with WC. The 61ft rear garden has excellent potential for landscaping, entertaining or for an extension, subject to the usual consents

The first floor has two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a large family bathroom.

Externally, a front driveway provides parking for two cars, plus side access to the rear garden.

Requiring modernisation, this home presents a superb opportunity to refurbish and personalise a well-proportioned period property in a sought-after location.
