Guide Price £280,000 to £300,000

Ferdinand Court, Adenmore Road, London, SE6 4BG

Guide Price £280,000-£300,000. Chain Free. A beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment offering stylish contemporary living, a well-planned layout and a private balcony with an attractive open outlook.

The 16ft open-plan kitchen/living/dining room is the heart of this home - with direct access onto the balcony with great views over the area, and perfect for relaxing or dining outdoors. The modern kitchen features sleek high gloss white cabinets, contrasting work surfaces and integrated appliances. Full-height windows bring plenty of natural light into the living space. The corner plot layout of this room has two windows so bringing more light and better views that most other flats in the building.

The double bedroom is approx. 12ft deep with full-height window, giving it a bright, airy feel. A stylish bathroom completes the accommodation, finished with large-format grey tiling and featuring a bath with overhead shower, wall-mounted basin, concealed-cistern WC and mirrored storage.

Fresh neutral décor and wood-style flooring add to the apartment's clean, contemporary feel, making this an appealing move-in-ready home for first-time buyers, commuters or investors.

Built in 2014, Ferdinand Court is within the Catford Green development and ideally positioned for commuters, with Catford Bridge and Catford stations close by providing excellent connections into central London. Local shops, cafés, restaurants and parks are also close by, with Ladywell, Honor Oak and Forest Hill within a mile's travel.
