A Rare Georgian Gem in Liverpool's Historic Quarter

Welcome to 14 Catharine Street – a beautifully restored four-bedroom end-of-terrace townhouse set in the heart of Liverpool's prestigious Georgian Quarter. This exceptional home masterfully combines period elegance with modern sophistication, following an extensive and sensitive refurbishment within the last decade.

Set across five impressive floors, this unique property is one of just two on the street to feature windows on every stairwell landing—flooding the interior with natural light and showcasing its elegant proportions and striking architectural detail.
