Hunters are delighted to bring to the market this spacious three-bedroom detached dormer bungalow, offering versatile accommodation, substantial outdoor space and fantastic potential for buyers looking to create a larger family home.

The property currently provides three well-proportioned bedrooms arranged across two floors, with a flexible ground-floor layout comprising a generous kitchen/living area, two further living rooms, a snug/lounge, bathroom and additional WC facilities. With several reception spaces available, the accommodation offers excellent scope to be adapted to create a fourth or potentially even a fifth bedroom, subject to the buyer's requirements and any necessary consents.

The ground floor benefits from one bedroom, while upstairs there are two further generous bedrooms, alongside a landing and WC. This flexible arrangement makes the home suitable for a variety of buyers, including families or those looking for the option of ground-floor living.

A real standout feature of the property is the significant amount of land positioned behind the bungalow. The extensive lawned grounds are surrounded by mature trees and established greenery, creating a fantastic outdoor space with plenty of room for families, keen gardeners or those simply looking for a home with substantial grounds.

Externally, the property also benefits from a private driveway providing ample off-road parking and a detached garage, offering additional parking, storage or workshop space.

Offering approximately 1,763 sq ft of accommodation, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a spacious and adaptable home with extensive grounds and plenty of potential to make it your own.
