An outstanding detached home, extensively redesigned and significantly extended, now offering exceptional living space finished to an immaculate, show-home standard. Ready for immediate occupation, this property presents a rare opportunity within one of Worsley's most desirable residential locations.

Occupying a substantial and private plot, the home benefits from generous parking provisions, a large garage, and beautifully landscaped surroundings, all complemented by open views to the rear. The property has undergone a comprehensive transformation, including a full structural redesign, new roof, complete rewire, updated plumbing, and the installation of a modern heating system. Internally, the finish is of the highest quality, with a bespoke kitchen, contemporary bathrooms, new windows, flooring, lighting, and stylish fixtures throughout. Externally, the grounds have been carefully designed with a mix of block paving, decking, pathways, and access via two separate driveways.
