Asking Price £250,000

I am pleased to introduce this charming semi-detached bungalow, currently available for sale. The property is in good condition, offering an excellent opportunity for potential buyers. A key feature of this bungalow is that it comes without any onward chain, making the buying process smoother and quicker.

This true bungalow comprises two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a modern bathroom with an enclosed shower, and a single reception room. The reception room boasts large windows, allowing an abundance of natural light to pour in, and features a lovely fireplace, adding a touch of character and cosy ambiance to the home.

The home is equipped with an open-plan kitchen offering plenty of natural light and dining space, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying family meals. The kitchen's open design allows for easy navigation around the cooking and dining area.

Externally, the bungalow benefits from off-road parking, providing convenience for vehicle owners. Additionally, the property features a garden, perfect for those who enjoy outdoor activities or simply appreciate a bit of
