

Duxbury, Church Hill, High Halden, TN26 3JB

Asking Price £1,485,000

Stunning Grade II Listed family home boasting four bedrooms, three bathrooms, three reception rooms and a detached annexe, set on an elevated plot of approximately 0.88 Acres and enjoying striking views over the surrounding countryside and conservation area, located within the popular village of High Halden and walking distance to the local amenities and primary school.

Duxbury has been beautifully and extensively renovated by the current owners to offer the highest quality of modern living whilst retaining the original charm of the property. The accommodation offers a welcoming reception hall with stairs to first floor and storage beneath, French doors leading out to a raised terrace and further doorway leading to the kitchen/breakfast room.

Installed in 2025, the bespoke kitchen by Tom Howley is a stunning example of traditional and exceptional craftsmanship and offers a range of base units with cupboard and drawer storage with inset butler sink, white quartz worksurfaces, integrated dishwasher and complementing electric Bertazzoni Range Cooker with induction hob.

The kitchen/breakfast room is open onto the Oak framed garden room, designed and constructed by David Salisbury, with vaulted ceiling and dual French doors with views over and leading out to the terrace and garden.

Further doorways lead to the sitting room and the generous pantry with attractive sliding doors, additional bespoke cabinetry, extensive wall shelving and space for appliances. The rear hall leads on to a utility room offering wall and base cabinetry with inset butler sink cupboard and doorway out to rear garden. The adjacent laundry room offers further cabinetry including laundry amenities and storage cupboards.

The sitting room boasts an impressive Inglenook fireplace with wood-burning stove, exposed beams and a striking Parquet floor by local antique flooring specialist, The Antique Oak Flooring Company in Ruckinge, Kent. Another local joiner, JP Joinery, crafted the spectacular custom-made wine room and handmade doors, created entirely from solid oak. A doorway leads into the study with extensive built in cabinetry offering cupboard and shelf storage.

Stairs lead up to the first-floor landing with cupboard storage and on to the master bedroom suite with dual windows to the front offering far reaching views, feature brick fireplace and exposed beams, and a stunning en-suite with walk-in wardrobe, freestanding bath, walk-in shower, twin vanity mounted basins and WC with high level wall mounted cistern.

The first floor offers a further double aspect double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and views over the rear garden, a third double bedroom enjoying far reaching views to the front, a shower room with suite comprising of a walk-in shower, vanity mounted basin and WC, and the family bathroom with suite comprising of a bath, vanity mounted basin and WC. Stairs lead up to the second-floor bedroom with window overlooking the rear garden, generous storage cupboard and boarded eaves storage with electricity.

Externally, the rear garden is a particular feature of the home. The attractive raised terrace is perfectly positioned to enjoy the surrounding views. The enclosed gardens wrap the home and are mainly laid to lawn with a variety of established trees, shrubs and planting, with a further raised terrace to the rear offering the perfect area to entertain. Positioned to the rear of the garden is the summer house with power and Wi-Fi available.

The detached annexe offers a spacious kitchen/diner with further reception space. Whilst currently used as a gym space, office and upholstery workshop, this multi-purpose area could be used as a fifth bedroom, and planning permission has been granted to convert into auxiliary accommodation. Beyond is an additional paved area with raised beds, two substantial timber sheds and five bar gates leading to the lawn and front driveway.

To the front the property offers a driveway with parking for multiple vehicles and benefits from a timber framed double carport with extensive storage space. The carport is fully wired providing the ability to add an EV charging point if required.

This delightful property is situated in the popular village of High Halden which offers a variety of local amenities including a well-stocked village store, primary school and popular historic public house/restaurant, The Chequers on the Green. The historic town of Tenterden is less than 10-minute drive with its busy High Street shops, supermarkets and leisure centre, whilst a short drive brings you to the beautiful Kent coastal area that includes Rye and Camber Sands.

The surrounding area is well known for its excellent range of schools both in the state and independent sectors including grammar schools for boys and girls. Mainline rail services are available at Headcorn and Ashford including 37-minute High Speed trains into London.
