

Penyrallt Avenue, Bridgend Offers Over £200,000

Council Tax: C

Tenure: Freehold

This semi-detached bungalow, offered for sale, presents an excellent opportunity in a sought after location with convenient access to public transport links, nearby schools, and local amenities. The property is neutrally decorated throughout, providing a versatile backdrop for a range of personal styles and furnishings.

Accommodation comprises two well-proportioned reception rooms and a functional kitchen, making the space suitable for both relaxing and entertaining. There are three bedrooms, providing flexibility for families, guests, or home working requirements. The property also benefits from a family bathroom.

Externally, the bungalow includes a private garden offering space for outdoor enjoyment, gardening, or al fresco dining. Further advantages include

- Sought-after convenient location
- Private garden for outdoor living
- Neutrally decorated throughout
- Nearby well-regarded schools
- Versatile accommodation
- Three flexible bedrooms
- Single garage and parking
- Close to public transport links
- Spacious reception rooms

