

Phyllis Avenue, Bridgend

£195,000

Council Tax: C

Tenure: Freehold

This two-bedroom terraced house is for sale in Bridgend, offering neutrally decorated accommodation with two reception rooms, one kitchen and two bathrooms, as well as a garden and single garage. It is likely to appeal to first-time buyers seeking an urban location with access to local amenities.

The property is situated within reach of Bridgend town centre, where you will find a range of shops, supermarkets, cafés and essential services. Nearby schools serve the local area, providing options for primary and secondary education.

Public transport links are available from Bridgend railway station, which offers services to Cardiff in around 20–25 minutes and Swansea in approximately 30–35 minutes, making it suitable for commuting or leisure travel. Local bus routes operate through the town and surrounding residential areas, connecting to neighbouring communities and retail parks.

- Two-bedroom terraced house
- Two bathrooms for convenience
- Single garage
- Walking distance to town centre
- Easy access to M4 corridor
- Two reception rooms
- Private garden for outdoor space
- Neutrally decorated throughout
- Excellent rail links to Cardiff & Swansea
- Ideal for first-time buyers

