

Jubilee Road, Bridgend

£180,000

Council Tax: C

Tenure: Freehold

Available for sale is this neutrally decorated three-bedroom terraced house, ideally situated in a sought-after urban location. The property provides convenient access to a variety of local amenities, making everyday living straightforward and comfortable. Excellent public transport links in the area ensure easy commuting and connectivity to surrounding districts. Nearby schools make it a practical choice for families.

Inside, the accommodation features a spacious reception room, offering ample space for relaxation and entertaining. A well-proportioned kitchen dining is also included, complementing the home's practical layout. The property comprises three bedrooms, suitable for a range of uses, from family living to setting up a home office or guest room as required. There is a modern bathroom to complete the interior offering.

To the rear, the house benefits from a private garden, providing outdoor space ideal for leisure and gardening enthusiasts. The residence falls within

- Three spacious bedrooms
- Modern bathroom
- Open plan kitchen dining
- Excellent public transport links
- Nearby schools & college
- Private rear garden
- Spacious reception room
- Sought-after urban location
- Close to local amenities
- Ideal for first-time buy

