This charming two bedroom period semi-detached home, ideally located within a popular and well-established area of Leighton Buzzard. Full of character and offering well-balanced and versatile accommodation arranged over three levels, this attractive property is perfect for first-time buyers, downsizers or those looking for a characterful home in a convenient location.

The property is entered into a bright and inviting lounge, which immediately sets the tone with its feature cast iron log burner creating a warm and cosy focal point. The lounge flows seamlessly through to the dining room, providing an excellent open and sociable space for everyday living and entertaining. From the dining room, stairs lead down to a useful cellar, which is currently being used as a home office, offering flexible additional space ideal for working from home or storage.

To the rear, the kitchen is fitted with a range of floor and wall mounted units and offers a practical and functional layout. The ground floor is completed by the bathroom, making the layout both convenient and well thought out.

On the first floor, the landing leads to two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both offering comfortable and versatile accommodation.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a large enclosed rear garden, mainly laid to lawn with a seating area and complemented by mature trees, creating a pleasant and private outdoor space ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

Situated in a popular part of Leighton Buzzard, the home is well placed for access to local shops, schools, the town centre and the mainline railway station with direct links to London Euston. This delightful period home combines charm, space and practicality, and an internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything it has to offer.
